Job Description

The work involves upholstering the interior of truck cabins. Covering furniture in a truck cabin with fabrics, or leather, or with wood and other materials. To do this work you need to be a furniture upholsterer.

Education & Experience

The workschedule:

Monday - Friday:

7:30 am present, coffee together and talk about the day / experiences / news etc.

Work starts around 8:00 am, until 10:00 am

Then we drink coffee together, talk on the phone etc., for half an hour

We work from 10:30 am - 12:00 pm

We take a break between 12:00 and 1:00 pm.

He can stay at our office for lunch. We have another boy who stays for 2 days, the rest go home for lunch.

Coffee / tea etc. is here.

The afternoon runs from 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm, then a break and from 3:30 pm - 4:30 pm we work.

So a total of 6.5 hours actually worked x 5 days is 32.5 hours

Saturday runs from 8:00 - 12:30, also starting with coffee and a chat and at 10:00 the usual break

That would be 3.5 hours actually worked.

That would give me a total of 36 hours worked.

Make another 2 hours on other time, then the total number of hours to be paid per week becomes 38 hours.

First holiday is (start) on around end of July, for 4 weeks, then the company is closed, so also is that his holiday.
